

Golf cart monitoring solution

Benefits on and off the course

- Cart location: AT&T Fleet Complete vehicle tracking solution captures and provides near real-time location of vehicles and assets, allowing fleet managers make on demand business decisions.
- Ignition status: Connecting directly to the cart's power source, the tracker captures and logs every time ignition is turned on and off, thereby monitoring start and end of the trip and idling duration.
- Geofencing: AT&T Fleet Complete Point of Interest virtual fencing allows golf course managers to identify tee boxes throughout the course and monitor congregation of assets at one or more location.
- Maintenance module enables fleet managers to schedule reminders for regular cart service based on mileage keeping all vehicles in optimal health and minimizing downtime.
