

AT&T Fleet Complete Forms

Create forms tailored to your needs

Be as flexible as your ever-changing business requirements and say goodbye to standardized paper forms! Now, you can solve problems faster, save valuable time and money, and beat your competition. With AT&T Fleet Complete Forms, you can build your own digital forms and tailor them to your immediate needs in order to easily adapt to different tasks at hand. You can also incorporate calculations and media, like pictures and sketches, in order to provide better insights into inspections or client issues on the spot.

Eliminate endless paperwork and multiple trips to the office and back, saving you and your mobile workers time on copious administration. Go completely paperless and use the mobile app to easily submit work orders to your field resources; use the touch screen and barcode scanner to collect signatures with the mobile device and increase your workflow efficiency tenfold.

Connect your mobile workers

Provide your onsite workers with near real-time data and connect them to all business operations remotely. Give your mobile personnel the tools and information they need to perform productively and efficiently, enhancing customer service and company's brand. AT&T Fleet Complete Forms mobile app allows you to access, collect and distribute data throughout your organization automatically, making critical information available to your field teams all the time and from anywhere in the world.

Increase productivity and accuracy with real-time data

Now, your business can do more with less. AT&T Fleet Complete Forms allows your mobile workers to access all backend data on customers, parts, pricelists, instructions and manuals that they need onsite, enabling them to work faster and visit more customers. The application also helps you to streamline daily task workflow, completion times and accuracy of data for optimal insights.

Audits made easy

Facilitate auditing through automatic GPS and time stamps. Have all of the basic information, like locations, visits and departure times, recorded automatically and available at all times.

Automatic calculations

Integrate automatic calculations into your forms to easily calculate time and costs associated with the project, allowing your mobile workers to start working without delay.

No training required

There is no need for specific training beforehand. The application is intuitive and easy to use. When in remote areas, you are able to work offline without internet connection, providing ultimate flexibility to your team's operations and keeping your workflow uninterrupted.
